

Helen and Ann and Vince and Vicky

19

Their names are Helen and Ann. They live in Madrid, Spain. They're thirteen years old. If they were taller they'd play basketball. Unfortunately, they're short so they play volleyball. If they were richer they'd go to America during summer vacation. Unfortunately they aren't rich so they can't go to America. If they were older they could drive cars. Unfortunately they aren't old enough to drive cars.

Their names are Vince and Vicky. They are cats. They don't do much. If it's a sunny day they usually sleep all day. If it's rainy they sleep all day. If their owner comes home they wake up for a few minutes and then go back to sleep. If they see a mouse they chase it for a few minutes and then go back to sleep. If they're hungry they meow at their owner until they get food and then go back to sleep. They are really lazy cats.
